Oakdale, CA – Public responses to a request for assistance in identifying a man that exposed himself and yelled to a woman to get in a vehicle last week leads to the arrest of Timothy Lyman, a registered sex offender out of Empire, CA.

At around 9:00 am this past Thursday morning, a woman reported seeing a white male adult approximately 40-50 years of age, sitting in the driver's seat of a white SUV appearing to be exposing himself, as he was parked on North Maag Ave., north of the area of the CVS Store. As the woman walked past the SUV, the man began to follow her and yelled to the woman to get in the vehicle. The man then stopped near her, and exited the vehicle. The man noticed the woman was taking photographs of him with her phone and got back inside of the vehicle and drove away from the area, last seen heading westbound on "F" St.

Oakdale Police asked for the public's help and released photographs of the suspect and the vehicle appearing to be a white Infiniti QX60 used during the incident. Investigators received information from several sources directing them to Timothy Lyman, 52 years of age, a sex registrant from Empire, CA. An arrest warrant was obtained for Lyman related to the incident and Lyman surrendered to police at the Oakdale Police Department last night.

The case remains under investigation and police are still requesting the public's assistance in determining the location of the vehicle used during the incident. The vehicle is believed to be a white Infiniti QX60.

Timothy Lyman, 52 years of age, was booked into the Stanislaus County Public Safety Center and charged with violations of 664/207 PC Attempted Kidnapping and 314 PC Indecent Exposure. He is currently being held on $100,000 bail.

Anyone with information regarding this investigation or similar incidents is encouraged to contact Detective Chelsie Stilwell of the Oakdale Police Department at (209) 847-2231.
