Oakdale, CA – Oakdale Police are investigating an early morning shooting that occurred in the area of the Motel 6 at 825 East "F" Street.

This morning at 2:49 a.m., Oakdale Police responded to the area of the Motel 6 at 825 East "F" Street to reports of gunshots and yelling. When officers arrived, they found one victim suffering from a gunshot wound. The 55-year-old man told police a woman attempted to steal his money. He chased her to try and get his money back and during the altercation he was shot. The woman then reportedly left the area in a 4-door blue sedan.

The victim was transported to a local area hospital where he remains in stable condition and is expected to recover. Investigators processed the crime scene and canvassed the area for possible witnesses as they continue efforts to identify the shooter. The investigation remains ongoing.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Oakdale Police at (209) 847-2231 or call Crime Stoppers at (209) 521-4636. Tipsters may also text information to Crime Stoppers at 274637.
