Oakdale, CA – Early morning traffic stop yields approximately ½ pound of methamphetamine and arrest.

Early this morning, at approximately 1:56 a.m., an Oakdale Police Officer stopped a car for speeding in the area of Shawn Vines Avenue and Caroldeen Street. The driver was contacted and later identified as Sergio Gomez, 43 years old, of Oakdale. Gomez was determined to be an unlicensed driver. During the stop, approximately ½ pound of methamphetamine was located and recovered from the vehicle.

Sergio Gomez was arrested and booked into the Stanislaus County Public Safety Center for charges of 11379(A) PC – Transportation of Narcotics and 11378 HS – Possession of Narcotics for Sale.
